Just came by to say thanks to everyone that came out tonight. We all had lot of fun... Great audience.

Anyone that didn't make it to Baker St. tonight really missed a killer show, hot women, great dancers and an all around good time.

Taylor sat in and totally kicked ass -- I think it's time for you to sing two in a night some time... what's next?

Time to have some middle of the night coffee and freshly baked peanut butter cookies.
